

What's the JOURNEY?

June is an ideal time to get outside, reflect on the past year, and reset for another year. The Journey course will support you to develop new insights and tools in a beautiful National park camp site beside the ocean on Coast Salish territory, on Pender Island, BC.

Based on a wealth of international and local experience working in child & youth development, IICRD is offering the 5th annual Journey course. This 4-day experiential land-based course promotes a strong personal foundation for safely and mindfully engaging in strength-based, community & culture-centred support for children and youth.

Activities include time for inner reflection, sharing circles, connection to nature and sense of place, including traditional cultural activities. We work with local Elders and knowledge keepers to ensure local relevance and respect for the natural territory.

- > STARTS Friday June 1st at 10am (Welcome to arrive after 5pm Thursday May 31st to set up, and join us informally fireside 8pm)
- > ENDS Monday June 4th at 1pm
- > Cost is $600, including meals, tent site & course materials.
- > You'll need your own tent, sleeping bag / pad, and dishes but get in touch if this is a barrier.
